

A Bit of Chaska History and Pumpkin Delight

Across

- 1 In 1621, the pilgrims and the Wampanoag Indians gathered here to celebrate what historians consider the first Thanksgiving.
- 4 Dietary substance in pumpkins that are necessary for digestion.
- 5 When cooked this way, pumpkin seeds are a nutritious treat.
- 6 On the first Thanksgiving, it was unlikely that Turkey was the main part of the feast. Instead, the Indians may well have brought this crustacean.
- 9 Pumpkins are often carved to frighten these away.
- 11 Important mineral found in pumpkins. We ideally should strive for 4700 mg. per day. An aid for strong bones, strong heart, and muscles.
- 12 An acronym of a military organization in Chaska, who in 1872, sponsored the Thanksgiving ball at one of Chaska's most popular opera houses.
- 13 Nutritious element in pumpkins that gives them their orange color.
- 14 In 1872, this opera house sponsored a Thanksgiving ball.
- 15 This now famous Christmas song was originally meant to be sung on Thanksgiving.
- 18 Many pumpkin recipes call for this ingredient, which usually comes in a can.
- 19 A spice from a ground seed with a sweet taste and frequently used in baking. Too much of this spice could cause an allergic reaction.
- 20 Is Pumpkin a fruit or a vegetable?

Down

- 2 A tradition so named in 1843 in Cornwall that means autumn.
- 3 A local and famous farm near Chaska, known for their corn maze.
- 7 This long narrow fruit is light in color that contains seeds from the flower-producing part of the plant.
- 8 Pumpkin recipes have this flavorful spice, its taste often likened to the powerful punch of cloves.
- 10 Local church in Chaska that provides community Thanksgiving dinner.
- 16 Pumpkin patch in New Prague, with several varieties of pumpkins.
- 17 Often in cookies of the same name and often an ingredient in a classic pumpkin pie recipe. Can be used in tea, salads or eaten raw.